

The Capistrano Unified School District's CLASS (Continued Learning, Adult Special Services) program is designed to meet the special education needs of post secondary students between the ages of 18-22. Support for students in this program is provided by CUSD special education staff. Programs are designed to meet the individual needs of each student.

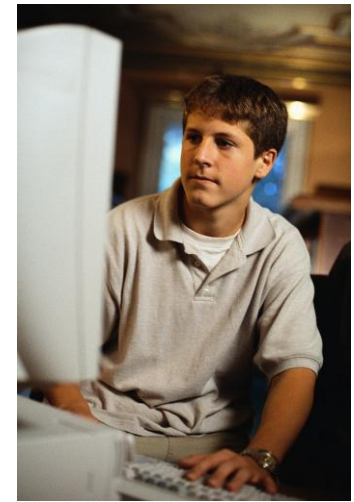

CLASS

For more information, please feel free to contact The Department of Special Education Education

949-234-9270

CLASS

Continued Learning, Adult Special Services

Capistrano Unified School District

High School Diploma

- Provide instruction in goal areas
- Provide CAHSEE prep and administration
- Create academic plan for high school diploma completion as “late grad”
- Provide direct instruction in areas of need
- Provide consultation/collaboration with additional staff (ex. TPP (Transition Partnership Program), DIS (Designated Instructional Services) providers, teaching staff, registrar)

Adult Education Diploma

- CAHSEE prep & test administration with accommodations
- Provide direct instruction in areas of need
- Assist with Adult Ed pre and post test requirements and enrollment
- Assist with Adult Ed classes
- Provide SE support in completing Adult Ed coursework
- Provide consultation/collaboration with additional staff (ex. TPP, DIS providers, teaching staff, registrar)

GED

General Educational Development

- Develop plan for completion of Certificate of General Educational Development
- Provide assistance with GED preparation
- Provide direct instruction in areas of need
- Provide consultation/collaboration with additional staff (ex. TPP, DIS providers, teaching staff, registrar)

Continued Learning Opportunities

- Provide academic enrichment
- Provide vocational skills
- Provide direct instruction in areas of need
- Monitor/assist with classes at community college or other post secondary settings
- Small group reading instruction
- Small group social skills sessions
- Provide consultation/collaboration with additional staff (ex. TPP, DIS providers, teaching staff, registrar)

